HEALTH OF THE VIRGINIA OYSTER.

Dr. A. W. Freeman and Dr. Meade Ferguson, who were ordered by the Siate Department of Health to make an nvestigation of the sauitary conditions of the syster industry, have returned to Richmord and are preparing their report. They visited all the important syster districts of the tides are section and collected many epaciments of systers. The following a stement on the subject The following statement on the subject was given out at the health department yesterday:

"The investigations made by repre-sentatives from this department show that the oysters supplied the market of the state are, in the maio, hea'thy and free from contamination. In most instances there is absolutely no question but that the oysters are in a perfectly healthy condition when taken from the Each $5.00

Harry E. Hyde, an employe of the taxtcab company, was arrested at union a ation last night, charged with carrying a concealed weapon. He was taken to the S xth precinct station, was later released on $50 collateral.

President Wilson, operating one of the company's cars, was returning to the garage from union station when, at Sec-end street and Massachustts avenue northwest, three men sprang icto the street from behind tree boxes and hu:led bricks at him. A brick struck Wilson on the shoulder and another hit bim on the head. Several crashed through the windows of the vehicle, and the occupants, terrified, screamed and were abou to acramble from the car when the driver put on speed and proceeded to the S.xth precinct station, where he reported the

Mr. Duckstein, who volunteered to assist the taxicab company last night, was struck by half a brick, and received an ugly wound on the nose at Fifth street and Massachusetts avenue. The assault on Mr. Duckstein occurréd simultaneously with that on Mr. Wilson. Mr. Duckstein threw on the speed clutch, and the machine dashed down Massachue ts avenue.

SAVED BY A TRAMP.

Mrs. Margaret Leppo, about 35 years old, was badly gored by a bull yesterday on the Berlin road, about six miles from York, Pa., and would have been killed had not a tramp driven off the animal by beating it on the head with a stick. The bull charged upon her and knocked her to the ground, goring her face and body and fracturing her cheek boue. As she lay upon the ground in a semiconscious condition and the bull was about to make anoth r charge a tramp appeared from a nearby woods. He cilled to the animal at racting its attention for a moment so that he could appreach near enough to beat it on the head before it made the second charge. After a fight for several minutes between the tramp and the built he animal fied down the
